

City Mission World Association

World Conference 2010

Next Generation Conference

Lutherstadt Wittenberg and Berlin

CMWA World Conference: September 17-21, 2010 In Berlin and Lutherstadt Wittenberg

The host of the Conference is the Berlin City Mission. We are expecting around 350 participants from all over the world that will come to Berlin and Lutherstadt Wittenberg.

Scouts wanted!

We are looking for young people that will enjoy

- encountering Christians from all over the world in an open and friendly manner
- getting to know city mission work in Berlin and world-wide
- tackling what needs to be done and accepting responsibility
- grappling with globalization problems in a constructive way

As a Scout a young person can decisively partake in making the conference participants feel welcome and contribute to the success of the conference.

We are offering:

- a "Getting to know the Berliner Stadtmission"-Program
- the invitation to services and other events of the Berlin City Mission
- the participation as a Scout in the CMWA World Conference in September 2010
- the possibility of arranging internships in city missions worldwide

Areas of Service at the Conference in September 2010:

Information Teams

- help desks at air ports and train stations
- city guides for conference participants
- information about public transportation schedules, ways, and tickets, also about the program sequence

Logistics Teams

- transport of materials
- assembly and disassembly of chairs, tables, etc.
- on-site help with the preparation of the program points
- support service for the workshops

Technical Teams

- support service for technical equipment like beamers, overheads, laptops
- support of participants with technical questions

Telephone Teams

- talking on the conference telephone hotline

Buffet Teams

- working to cater food and beverages

Conditions for participation:

In order to participate in the world conference as a Scout you need to have successfully completed the "Getting to know the Berliner Stadtmission"-Program.

Beyond that Scouts have to be at least 16 years of age at the starting point of the World Conference (Sep. 17, 2010) and have foreign language skills, preferably in English, French, and/or Spanish.

Application:

We ask for a written application. This application includes the filling out of a questionnaire which will be sent to you upon request. In addition you should address us with a short, personal application letter, telling us about yourself and your motives.
